

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Terrace L Soloman,
Appellant,

v.

Wendy Solomon,
Appellee.

Supreme Court No. S-17476

Order

Regarding Motion for Late-Filed Appeal and Motion for Waiver of Fees and Costs

Date of Notice: 7/1/2019

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-15-04521CI

On consideration of Appellant Terrance L Solomon's 6/4/2019 motion to allow a late-filed appeal and motion for waiver of fees and costs (cost bond and cost of printing briefs), and no opposition having been filed,

IT IS ORDERED:

The motion to allow a late-filed appeal is GRANTED: the opening documents are accepted as filed. The motion for waiver of fees and costs is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. The appellant's motion for waiver of fees and costs indicates he is employed by the U.S. Army but states "No Pay Status." If appellant wishes to renew his request to waive fees and costs, he must file his most recent U.S. tax return forms and his 3 most recent pay statements. The filing fee and cost bond or a renewed motion to waive the fees and costs with supporting documents are due on 7/15/2019. If the filing fee and cost bond are not paid, or a renewed motion to waive them is not filed by that date, the appeal will not be docketed.

Note: appellant didn't check the box requesting that he be allowed to use a CD of the designated hearing or trial. If appellant does not make this request he will be required to have a transcript of the designated hearing or trial made at his expense.

Entered by direction of an individual justice.
